

House in Mahon Centro

Rif.: 91692

Building available for renovation amidst the rich historical centre of Mahón, this property stands adjacent to prominent landmarks including the Museum of Menorca, Military Government offices, Mahón Town Hall, and the Church of Santa Maria. Offering a blank canvas ready for transformation, it invites the authoring of new and captivating narratives within its centuries-old walls. Comprising a ground floor, two upper levels, and a vaulted basement, the building features a central staircase that links each floor, dividing them into two distinct spaces with uniform characteristics. There is the potential to segregate the ground floor, transforming it into a commercial unit to complement the residential aspects of the property. Perfectly poised for comprehensive refurbishment, this property has the potential to evolve into a true jewel of urban living, ideal for discerning individuals seeking respite from the chaotic pace of modern living.
